

Year 6 worked with BEARFACE Theatre to explore making choices and being strong enough to recognise good friends, positive decisions and the importance of talking to trusted people when you are worried about things.

We had two workshops to explore the motivations of Buddy and Joe and used drama to explore the characters and motivations of both. They were fabulous, engaging workshops, which we really enjoyed.

