

Winklebury Federation Summer Term Book Recommendations

Dive into a great book this Summer!

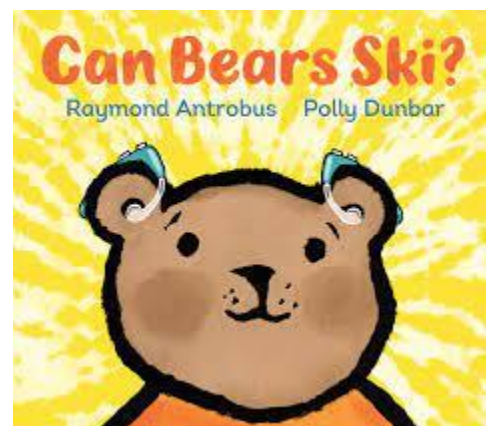

Picture books

Isabel and her family don't have much but one day, there isn't enough money to pay their rent and bills so they have to leave their home full of happy memories and move to the other side of the city. Isabel decides that it is up to her to make a difference! A beautiful story.

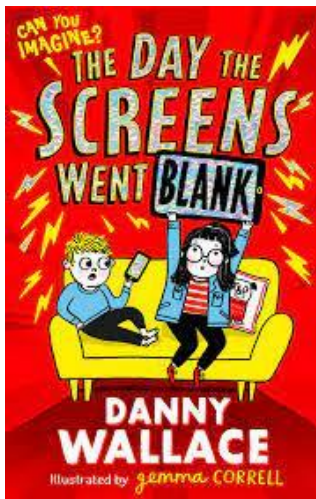

You'll either agree with this title or feel outraged! Once upon a time there was a little girl called Mabel. A girl who didn't like books. She used them for all sorts of things, from juggling to sledging, but she NEVER looked at the stories inside. Until the books decided they had had ENOUGH! This is a story which celebrates all the best things about books and the adventures they can take you on.

It's so important that children see themselves in books. Is Little Bear ignoring his friends when they say hi, or is something else going on? A discovery opens new doors in a tale that will delight kids with deafness and all children learning to navigate their world.

Chapter books for younger readers

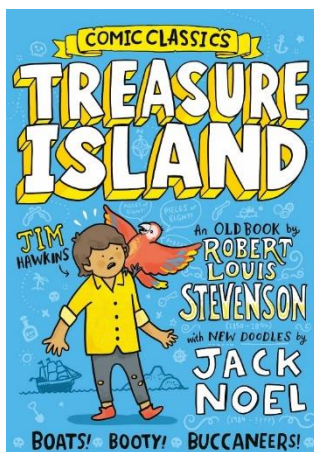

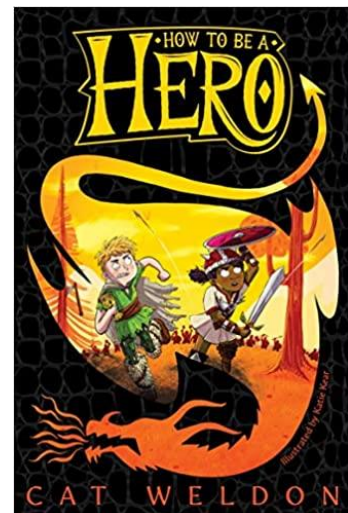

The title of this book is naturally a child's worst nightmare... One day, all technology stops working... Obviously, this causes widespread panic!

Stella and her family set off on a mission to check on Grandma... but a long journey without phones and sat-nav is never going to be easy.

Without screens however, talking to each other and spending quality time together isn't actually that bad!

Great for Year 4 as it's all about Vikings! And will be loved by all 'How To Train Your Dragon' fans. How To Be A Hero greets us with two useless heroes as they try to prove themselves. Historical facts mixed with a great story and lots of laughs!

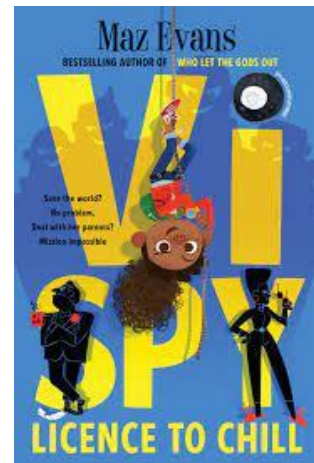

If you prefer a shorter story, then this is for you! This book is a mix of illustrations and text. Treasure Island is a superb pirate story that needs no introduction. Join Jim Lad on his pirate adventures and meet the brilliant characters that he encounters.

Chapter books for older readers

As a huge fan of Maz Evans, this book had to be recommended. Vi's mum is a retired super spy who is desperate for a normal life. Vi's dad a famous super villain who everyone thought was dead, re-emerges on the scene. As you can guess, this spells trouble! Vi decides that she wants to become a spy like her mum and enlists the help of her nan to get her way and earn a place at spy school!

Why wait for the perfect family to find you when you could start your own search to find the perfect parents to adopt you? Fed up with constantly moving from different foster families, Sam starts 'The Perfect Parent Project.' Can he find his dream family or does he just need to appreciate what is in front of him?

Blue Wing's parents were killed by an infamous shark and so she lives with the local shark caller. Their lives are rocked once again when Maple and her father move to the island from America and they are charged with looking after the new arrivals. Blue Wing and Maple don't exactly hit it off from the start, but their friendship grows and grows. The girls bring out new qualities in each other and they have adventures and make self-discoveries.

If you read any of these books, we'd love to hear what you think.
