

What is the main aim of the Parent Support Adviser?

The main aim is to help parents to:

Support and improve parenting skills

Improve School attendance

Improve punctuality

Support parents in understanding and engaging with children's learning and development

Provide access to wider support services

I will always be:

A good listener

Non –Judgemental

Honest

Supportive

Discreet

Carol Robertson

Parent Support Adviser

c.robertson@castlehill-inf.

hants.sch.uk

Mobile: 07590939319

Parent Support Adviser
Information for Parents and Carers

Castle Hill Infants and
The Winklebury
Federation Schools

Supporting family and school life.

What does your Parent Support Adviser do?

Your Parent Support Adviser is here to offer help, support, guidance and a listening ear to parents /carers of school children

I can support with:

Parental and family concerns

School lateness and attendance

Positive parenting, behaviour and relationship strategies

Transition through school

Sleep routines

Healthy eating and nutrition

Benefits and housing

Family routines and boundary setting

Wellbeing and Mindfulness

Signposting to other agencies

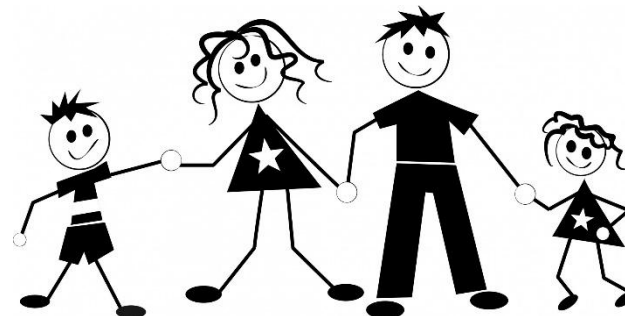

How do I provide support?

I can give support to families in many different ways including:

One to one contact via meetings in school or in your home

Telephone, text and email

Support in referring onto other agencies

When might you need to contact your Parent Support Adviser?

“I need help getting my child to school on time”

“I have a question about parenting”

“I would just like to talk to someone”

“I am worried about money and need help “

“I am struggling with my child’s behaviour”