

Elm and Pine class visited the Gilbert White Study Centre to investigate rivers.

We measured the profile, the water velocity, examined the wild life of the water and made a river model using found materials in the forest.

We also hiked to the top of the hangar to see the valley - and met a tree that said hi!

