

Pine and Elm classes, along with Y5, are working on the Climate Unity Project. Inspired by the taiga biome, we have created collage versions of our sketches prior to selecting materials for our patchwork squares.

This has been a perfect way to spend an afternoon after a SATS paper!

Our finished quilt will be on display at the Willis Museum in July. We will let you know when you can go and visit it.