Dear Parents / Carers,

Church of The Good Shepherd Visit

Our RE topic this term is the empty cross and to support and deepen our learning, we have been invited to a murder mystery morning at the Church of the Good Shepard. As this is a local trip and we are walking there and back, we do not need permission forms completing. However, we do want to you know that both classes (and all the usual adults they work with) will be attending the hour long workshops on the morning of the Thursday 31st March.

As the workshops will take place in the morning, your children may not be in school for break or the tuck shop. The Church have kindly offered to provide snacks and drinks, (biscuits and water or orange or blackcurrant squash). If your child has a particular dietary requirement, please send them to school on this day with a suitable snack.

If your child's class misses the usual morning break, they will still have that break and playtime upon their return to school.

If you have any questions, please do contact the office and they will do their best to answer them.

Yours sincerely

Mrs. J. Bailey and Miss Cosser
