

Year 6 have started back at school by exploring the emotions and moods we feel at different times. After all the talking we go very creative with card and paint to create these facial expressions.

Talking about our experiences and thinking about the implications for our local community and the wider world has been very good way of making sense of all the things we have been through and highlighted what we need to do to ensure we all stay safe and healthy.

