

Winklebury Federation Summer Term 2024 Book Recommendations

Dive into a great book this Summer!

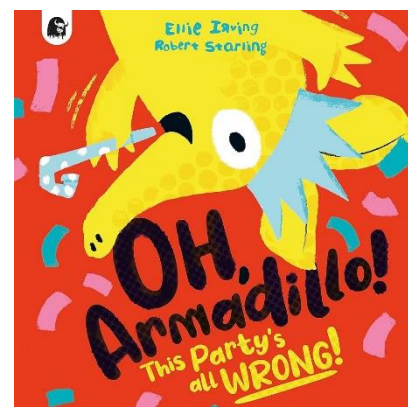

Picture books

Sometimes all we want to do is belong. Becoming a part of a club can be a great way to find friends but sometimes it can make others feel excluded. In this delightful story, we are reminded about the importance of being friends with everyone and recognising our differences as well as our similarities.

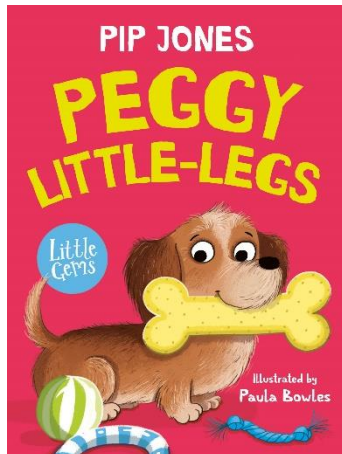

Disaster has struck for Duck. A crab has taken a liking to his Teapot and refuses to get out! Tiny Horse comes up with all sorts of mad cap ideas to help his friend Duck. In the end a trip to the seaside seems to fix things. A funny story that will make readers chuckle.

Armadillo understands the world differently and when he invites his jungle friends to a party they are in for a surprise – there is no real cake or party games as they know them. Soon they realise that while their friend may see the world differently, it doesn't mean he's wrong. A brilliant story about the acceptance of our differences.

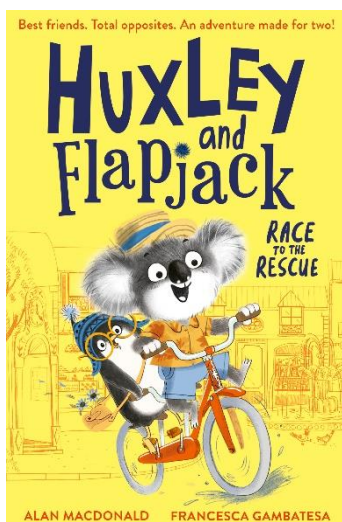

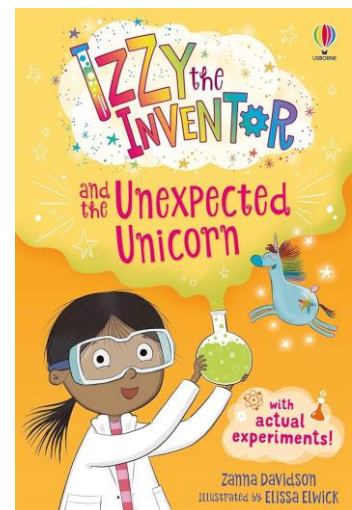

Chapter books for younger readers

In this delightful first chapter book, Peggy the Dachshund realises that being the fastest and the bounciest are not always the skills that are needed. Peggy struggles in all the races but when her pup friend gets stuck in a hole, she is just the pup for the job.

After too many experiments go wrong at home, Izzy is told to stop experimenting and play fairies with her little sister. But Izzy the scientist doesn't believe in fairies - until that is, a fairy and a unicorn take her off to Fairytale Land to help save it. Can Izzy rescue Fairytale Land with science?

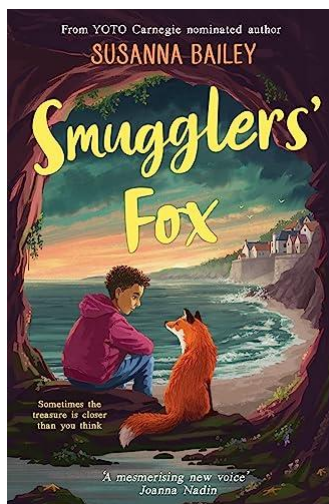

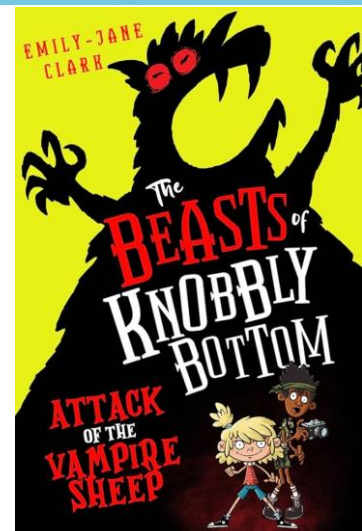

Join Huxley and Flapjack on a mission to retrieve Huxley's cape along with many other items that the pair have been mistakenly accused of stealing. With a gung-ho Koala and a cautious penguin this is a fun adventure that everyone will enjoy.

Dive into a great book!

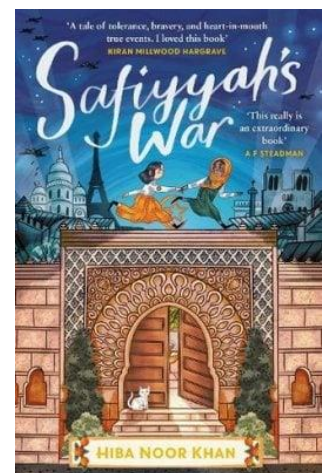

Chapter books for older readers

Who knew living in the countryside would be so scary?! Maggie McKay can't believe it when her mum moves them from Leicester to a boring village. Little does she realise that she will be chased by vampire sheep and that no-one will believe her when she tells the truth. Lots of laugh out loud moments. Watch out for the great chapter headings and the character file top trumps at the end of the book. The good news is there is more to come in the series. A must for all beast quest fans.

It's always been Jonah's job to look after Rio but when their Mum disappears for good this time they are split up and put into long term foster care. Jonah is distraught when he is sent to live by the sea, because bad things happen by the sea but with the help of a new friend Freddie, an urban fox and a treasure map, Jonah begins to feel stronger and braver to face the future. A raw and emotional story touching on difficult themes with empathy and realism.

Set in Paris in 1940 and based on true events, Safiyyah lives in the compound around the Grand Mosque. The arrival of the Germans sparks fear and uncertainty but, the Muslim community rally round to save their Jewish counterparts. A beautifully written story where religion is set aside in a humanitarian venture. This is an age-appropriate story where the true horrors of war are experienced but humanity wins.

If you read any of these books, we'd love to hear what you think.

Want to share your own book recommendation? Please email any recommendations with a little bit about the book to the Admin Office