

English

- In writing, our model text is “The Last Bear” In our fiction writing, we will be focusing on setting descriptions.
- In our non-fiction writing, we be writing a non-chronological report about the Polar Bear from “The last bear”
- In reading, our fiction text is Loki by Louie Stowell and our nonfiction text is Viking Voyagers by Jack Tite.
- In poetry, our theme will be on the Vikings.

Understanding why positive relationships matter and how to build them. We’re focussed on the building blocks of good relationships and friendships.

Computing

We will be learning how to use the internet and then starting our unit on scratch and indefinite loops

PSHE – My happy mind - Relate

We will be understanding why positive relationships matter and how to build them. We’re focussed on the building blocks of good relationships and friendships.

French

The theme this term is story telling

History

We will be learning about the Vikings. Were they raiders or traders?

Art

We will be focusing on the skill of print making

Invaders Galore! Vikings

Maths

Our focus areas for maths are:

- Statistics– solve comparison, sum and difference problems using information presented in bar charts, pictograms and other graphs.
- Multiplication– rapid recall of timetables facts up to 12x12, multiply 2 digit and 3 digit numbers by a 1 digit number.
- Measurement – Calculating measurement in days, weeks, months and years to find durations of time
- Review the properties of geometric shapes— quadrilaterals and triangles, types of angles and plotting co-ordinates.

RE

We will be looking at the symbolism of stones

Music

Our focus song is “Blackbird” by the Beatles

PE

Wednesday: Swimming at the Aquadrome

Friday: Athletics

Science

We will be finishing our plant topic and begin investigating electrical circuits.